

UNIT 2: MEDIEVAL EUROPE

Making Connections: Looking back at Unit 1

Review: Rome was the strongest empire in the world.

Predict: What do you think happened in Western Europe AFTER the Fall of the Roman Empire?
Reality: What happened in Western Europe after the fall of the Roman Empire?

Using your textbook page 20, read the first paragraph and answer the following questions:

1. Which two groups controlled Europe?
2. What happened to Europe's government after 476 C.E.?
3. How did groups gain control?

In your own words, what happened to Europe after the barbarians invaded Rome?	When you have finished up to this point, get Stamp 1!
---	--

European Geography

Brainstorm:

How would you live in a place surrounded by water?	How would you get your food?
	How would you contact other people?
	How would you make money?

How would you live in a place with large fields and a good amount of rain?	How would you get your food?
	How would you make money?

Vocabulary

Term	Definition	Picture

Check Your Understanding

How did the peninsulas of southern Europe affect the way people lived?

- a. People on the peninsulas raised goats and sheep.
- b. People on the peninsulas grew grapes and olives.
- c. People on the peninsulas became great seafarers and traders.
- d. People on the peninsulas became farmers.

Once you have answered this question, get your final stamp!